The following shall be substituted for rule 6 of Order XXXIII of the First Schedule to Civil Procedure Code, 1938:—

"6 Where the Court sees no reason to reject the application on any of the grounds stated in rule 5, it shall nevertheless fix a day within which the applicant shall be given by the opposite party and to the Government Pleader for entering such evidence as the applicant may desire to add to the evidence already on file and for showing any evidence which may be adduced in the contrary."

The following shall be added as sub-rule (d) to rule 7 of Order XXXIII of the First Schedule to Civil Procedure Code, 1938:—

"Where the application is for leave to sue in a representative capacity under Explanation (B) to rule 1, or, under sections 81, 82 or under Order I, rule 8, the court may if it thinks fit, for reasons to be recorded in writing direct that the plaintiff shall give security for the payment of costs."

"Where the plaintiff fails to file the suit as directed or where the suit is withdrawn or where part of the claim is abandoned or where the suit is discontinued—

(a) because the summons for the defendant to appear has issued and the suit has served upon him in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the security for costs charged (if any) discharge for such service, or

(b) because the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, the court shall order the plaintiff or any person added as a co-plaintiff to the suit, to pay the costs incurred in the case of abandonment of part of the claim (if any) and costs for such service as may be payable by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper.

"Where the court finds that the suit has been instituted unnecessarily or vexatiously by a third party on behalf of a plaintiff or on a basis of facts which occurred during the minority of such plaintiff, the court may order the third party personally to pay the costs."

The following shall be substituted for the existing proviso to rule 2 of Order XLIV of the First Schedule to Civil Procedure Code, 1938:—

"Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue or appear as a pauper in the suit, he shall, where the appeal is preferred, not institute any appeal in respect of his application unless he is necessary, unless the appellate court, after taking the Government Pleader, sees cause to direct such enquiry."
